with a purpose! The yogi realised this. He went back to Aaduthurai and seating himself under a peepul tree went into Siva Yoga. Then at the rate of one Tamil verse for each year, he gave out the treasure of wisdom – the four paths of salvation – the Thirumantthram of 3,000 verses. In due course, he reached the feet of the Lord at Kailaas.

31. DHANDI ADIGAL NAAYANAAR

Dhandi Adigal of Thiruvaaroor was born blind. He daily went around the local shrine, chanting the ‘Panchaakshara’. One day, he realised that the Jains had encroached upon the western bank of the temple-tank (Kamalaalaya), rendering it shallow. He planned to excavate the tank. He had a rope tied – east to west – on two poles which he had set up. Feeling this rope, he went up and down the steps excavating the mud and throwing it out.

The Jains resented this and told him: “Forbear, the live creatures in the tank will be harmed by your act.” Adigal responded: “There can be nothing wrong in the service of the Lord!” To this came the retort: “Are you deaf too – not only blind?” The devotee now threw out a challenge: “If by the Lord’s grace, my eyes regain sight and your eyes become blind, what will you do?” Replying that in such a case they would go out of Thiruvaaroor. Then the Jains rudely plucked out the spade, the rope and the poles.

The devotee resented this insult, complained to the Lord in agony and returned to his math, where he cried himself to sleep. The Lord assured him in a dream that he would be vindicated. Then the Lord appeared to the local ruler also in
